Corporate Policy:

It is Trane Technologies’ policy to comply fully with the Customs laws, regulations and policies of all countries where it does business. Trane Technologies recognizes that the United States government and the government of other countries have laws, regulations and policies, which control the international movement (import and export) of goods, technology and data. Trane Technologies further recognizes the importance of compliance with these laws, regulations and policies. Failure to comply may result in severe penalties to Trane Technologies and / or individual employees, including monetary penalties, adverse publicity, loss of import / export privileges, delay or seizure of shipments, and in extreme cases, criminal penalties (fines and jail terms).

Purpose:

This Supplier Guide for U.S. Imports is in place to ensure efficient and timely delivery of cargo from international supply points to Trane Technologies locations within the United States.

These procedures cannot be interpreted as a substitute for compliance with applicable U.S. Government regulations. Failure to comply with these requirements could result in unexpected delays, unnecessary costs, fines/penalties, inspections and/or seizure of inbound shipments for non-regulatory compliance.

Scope:

This policy applies to all U.S. imports. The most current version of the Supplier Guide for U.S. Imports is located on: <https://www.tranetechnologies.com/en/index/company/doing-business-with-us.html>

Since we are now operating as Trane Technologies, there are things you need to know to ensure business continuity.

Product Marking:

All products or their individual packaging must be marked in English with ISO country of origin, the country where the good was manufactured and/or assembled. The country of shipment is not necessarily the country of origin. Origin marking must be in English, and be clear, conspicuous, legible and permanent to indicate to the ultimate purchaser in the United States the English name of the country of origin of the merchandise.

Assists:

U.S. Customs requires any assists to be reported at the time of import filing and can be added to one shipment or a number of shipments for a specific period of time. The foreign supplier must first identify any item that was provided free of charge or below market value for use in the production of product for Trane Technologies. Assists can include machinery or parts, molds, raw materials.

Free Trade Agreement / Government Procurement Requests

Upon request, our valued Suppliers will provide Trane Technologies with all information and records relating to the purchased products that may be necessary for Trane Technologies to:

- (a) Fulfill any Customs obligations, origin marking or labeling requirements,
- (b) Claim preferential duty treatment under applicable trade preference regimes, and
- (c) Participate in any duty deferral or free trade zone programs of the country of import.

Trane Technologies is legally required to maintain certain documentation and specific data related to products purchased and/or imported into the United States. This documentation may help substantiate key compliance elements such as the harmonized tariff classification and country of origin of the imported products. In order to maintain the data, Trane Technologies may send suppliers solicitation requests on a regular basis. These requests may include but are not limited to any of the following: USMCA, CAFTA, GSP, Chile/Korea/Australia/Colombia-U.S. Free Trade Agreements Certificate of Origin or Manufacturer’s Affidavit/Declaration or Certificate of Origin requests. Your prompt response is critical.

Export Packaging Requirements:

All wooden packaging materials (WPM) must be ISPM15 compliant. All WPM must be properly marked to indicate either heat treatment or methyl bromide treated and marked with the IPPC certification. Wood packing material is defined as wood or wood products (excluding paper products, such as corrugated paper cartons) used in supporting, protecting or carrying a commodity (includes tonnage). Wooden packing materials include: Pallets, crates, boxes, packing blocks, drums, cases, skids and pieces of wood used to support or brace cargo.

U.S. Customs and Border Protection requires all containers transiting via ocean vessel are sealed using ISO/PAS 17712 standards. For more information on CBP’s requirements: <https://www.cbp.gov/>

Importer Security Filing (ISF) Requirements

Required for ALL OCEAN shipments to the U.S. and Puerto Rico

U.S. Customs has implemented additional security requirements (10+2 or the Importer Security filing (ISF)) requiring shippers report 10 data elements for authorization prior to loading goods on a vessel bound for the United States/Puerto Rico. These regulations became effective January 26, 2009 and failure to comply will lead to penalties of $5,000 USD per occurrence and up to $10,000 USD per shipment.

Suppliers must provide Trane Technologies’ appointed customs broker, Expeditors International, with a copy of documentation and complete the ISF form.

ISF Form for SUPPLIER to Complete

The ISF form must be emailed to Expeditors no less than 72 hours before cargo is loaded onto an ocean vessel. Email address: clt-isf@expeditors.com

Definitions:

- Anti-dumping duty Selling below home market prices or cost of manufacture with material injury to an U.S. manufacturer is called dumping. Antidumping duties are levied upon further importation of the merchandise.
- AWB/BOL Airway bill or Bill of Lading are negotiable instruments that allow the carrier to transport a merchandise shipment from a shipper to a consignee.
- CBP U.S. Customs and Border Protection is a federal law enforcement agency of the United States Department of Homeland Security charged with regulating and facilitating international trade, collecting import duties, and enforcing U.S. regulations, including trade, drug and immigration laws. <http://www.cbp.gov/>
- Commercial Invoice Invoice used for shipping purposes. Commercial invoice must be in English and value in USD.
- Country of Origin The country where the goods were originally produced or manufactured. The country of origin is NOT necessarily the country from which the goods were shipped.
- EPA Environment Protection Agency is an independent U.S. government agency that sets and enforces rules and standards that protect the environment and control pollution. <http://www.epa.gov/oppt/import-export/>
- FCC Federal Communication Commission is an independent U.S. government regulatory agency overseeing all international communications. The FCC acts to maintain the standards and consistency among the ever-growing types of media and methods of
